Introduction:

Here we are again to bring you the latest information from BJ. This month we're looking at the range of plastic enclosures and junction boxes on offer. Plastic boxes are plastic boxes and there's not much to add to that. What's interesting for you to know is the fact that our prices are competitive, it's a quality product and the range is extensive. Also, we can provide a service to ensure that we have security stock to cover your agreed requirements.

The Ranges

Two ranges, the first being standard plastic junction boxes and the second being distribution units.
